

Information for the processing of personal data pursuant to the GDPR 2016/679

- We wish to inform you that the processing of your personal details will occur through fairness and transparency, for legal purposes and protecting your privacy and your rights. The processing will also be carried out through computerised systems for the following purposes: to comply with the administrative, accounting and fiscal obligations in force; to realize statistical studies in anonymous form, to send news about our offers and initiatives.
- In addition, we wish to inform you that the contribution of these details as foreseen is mandatory. For any further information or to assert your rights, recognized by Par. 7 of the Privacy Code (Legislative Decree 196/2003), please contact the Manager in charge of the processing.
- Right to access your personal details and other rights
  1. The concerned person is entitled to obtain a confirmation that his/her personal details are - or are not being processed - even though these details have not been registered yet, and to obtain their communication in intelligible form.
  2. The concerned person is entitled to obtain information about:
    1. The origin of personal details;
    2. The purposes and modes of the processing;
    3. The logic applied in case the processing is carried out through computerized systems;
    4. The personal details of the Manager, of the persons in charge and of the representative designated as per Par. 5, Art. 2;
    5. The parties or categories to whom the personal details may be communicated or that may gain knowledge as designated representatives inside the State borders, persons in charge or appointees.
  3. The concerned person is entitled to obtain:
    1. The updating, the amendment, or, if so required, the integration of the details;
    2. The cancellation, the transformation into anonymous form or the stoppage of the detail processing in case it infringes the law, including those which do not require filing with respect to the purposes for which such details were collected and subsequently processed;

3. A declaration that the persons to whom the details have been notified or sent out have been made aware of the operations indicated at point a) and b) concerning their contents, except in the case such notification results impossible or requires the use of means that are clearly disproportioned with respect to the protection of the right.
  4. The concerned person is entitled to partly or entirely oppose:
    1. The processing of his/her personal details for legitimate reasons, even though they are pertinent with the purpose of the collection;
    2. The processing of his/her personal details required for purposes of business information or dispatching advertising or other direct sales material or for the completion of market research or interactive business communication.
